

Tomasz Łączek

Wartości etyczne przekazywane dzieciom i młodzieży – na przykładzie Kodeksów Etycznych Turysty

Ethical values passed on to children and youth – in the view of Tourist's Ethical Code

Abstract

Below examples contained in the Tourist's Ethical Code are used in the process of educating children and young people have a preventive and practical function. Youths, while participating in trips and tourist events gets to know the world around them, other people and also themselves. Having conscious understanding that selected environments are under lawful environmental protection not to be altered, there are also ethical considerations that guide principles of tourism. Full understanding of this viewpoint allows for more meaningful experiencing visits in attractive for tourists places. Skillful introduction by a teacher to a cultured mannerism of XXI century tourism, causes that a civilized tourist obeys not only the legal guidelines, but also much more, namely a civilized tourist will behave with respect to the values of others and own values.